Consultants shall acknowledge receipt of all amendments. To give Consultants reasonable time in which to take an amendment into account in their Proposals the Employer may, if the amendment is substantial, extend the deadline for the submission of Proposals.

5. Conflict of Interest

- 5.1 Employer requires that Consultants provide professional, objective, and impartial advice and at all times hold the Employer's interests paramount, strictly avoid conflicts with other Assignment/jobs or their own corporate interests and act without any consideration for future work.
- 5.2 The consultant has an obligation to disclose to the employer any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts its capacity to serve the best interest of its employer failure to disclose such situation may lead to the disqualification of consultant or termination of its contract and /or sanctions by the employer.
- 5.3 Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, Consultants, and any of their affiliates, shall be considered to have a conflict of interest and shall not be recruited, under any of the circumstances set forth below:
- Conflicting activities: (i) a firm that has been engaged by the Employer to provide goods, works or Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job for a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing consulting Assignment/job related to those goods, works or Assignment/job. Conversely, a firm hired to provide consulting Assignment/job for the preparation or implementation of a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from subsequently providing goods or works or Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job resulting from or directly related to the firm's consulting Assignment/job for such preparation or implementation. For the purpose of this paragraph, Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job are defined as those leading to a measurable physical output, for example surveys, exploratory drilling, aerial photography, and satellite imagery.

- Conflicting Assignment/job; (ii) A Consultant (including its Personnel and Sub-Consultants) or any of its affiliates shall not be hired for any Assignment/job that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another Assignment/job of the Consultant to be executed for the same or for another Employer. For example, a Consultant hired to prepare engineering design for an infrastructure project shall not be engaged to prepare an independent environmental assessment for the same project, and a Consultant assisting an Employer in the privatization of public assets shall not purchase, nor advice purchasers of, such assets. Similarly, a Consultant hired to prepare Terms of Reference for an Assignment/job shall not be hired for the Assignment/job in question.
- Conflicting relationships (iii) A Consultant (including its Personnel and Sub-Consultants) that has a business or family relationship with a member of the Employer's staff who is directly or indirectly involved in any part of (i) the preparation of the Terms of Reference of the Assignment/job, (ii) the selection process for such Assignment/job, or (iii) supervision of the Contract, may not be awarded a Contract, unless the conflict stemming from this relationship has been resolved in a manner acceptable to the Employer throughout the selection process and the execution of the Contract.

5.4 Consultants have an obligation to disclose any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of their Employer, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. Any such disclosure shall be made as per the Standard forms of technical proposal provided herewith. If the consultant fails to disclose said situations and if the Employer comes to know about any such situation at any time, it may lead to the disqualification of the Consultant during bidding process or the termination of its Contract during execution of assignment.

5.5 No agency or current employees of the Employer shall work as Consultants under their own ministries, departments or agencies.

6. Unfair Advantage

6.1 If a Consultant could derive a competitive advantage from having provided consulting

Assignment/job related to the Assignment/job in question and which is not defined as conflict of interest as per Para 5 above, the Employer shall make available together with this RFP all information that would in that respect give such Consultant any competitive advantage over competing Consultants.

7. Proposal

- 7.1 No Bidder or its Associate shall submit more than one Proposal for the Consultancy. A Bidder applying individually or as an Associate shall not be entitled to submit another application either individually or as a member of any other consortium, as the case maybe. If a Consultant submits or participates in more than one proposal, such proposals shall be disqualified. However, this does not limit the participation of the individual experts, to more than one proposal.

8. Proposal Validity

- 8.1 The Part II Data Sheet to consultant indicates how long Consultants' Proposals must remain valid after the submission date. During this period, Consultants shall maintain the availability of Professional staff nominated in the Proposal and also the financial proposal unchanged. The Employer will make its best effort to complete negotiations within this period. Should the need arise, however, the Employer may request Consultants to extend the validity period of their proposals. Consultants who agree to such extension shall confirm that they maintain the availability of the Professional staff nominated in the Proposal and their financial proposal remain unchanged, or in their confirmation of extension of validity of the Proposal, Consultants could submit new staff in replacement, who would be considered in the final evaluation for contract award. Consultants who do not agree have the right to refuse to extend the validity of their Proposals, under such circumstance the Employer shall not consider such proposal for further evaluation.

9. Preparation of Proposals

- 9.1 The Proposal as well as all related correspondence exchanged by the Consultants and the Employer shall be written in English language, unless specified otherwise.
- 9.2 In preparing their Proposal, Consultants are expected to examine in detail the documents comprising the RFP. Material deficiencies in providing the information requested may result in rejection of a Proposal.

15. Proposal Evaluation

- 15.1 From the time the Proposals are opened to the time the Contract is awarded, the Consultants should not contact the Employer on any matter related to its Technical and/or Financial Proposal. Any effort by Consultants to influence the Employer in the examination, evaluation, ranking of Proposals, and recommendation for award of Contract may result in the rejection of the Consultants' Proposal.
- 15.2 The Evaluation will be carried out by Consultant Selection Committee (CSC) constituted by the Employer.
- 15.3 Evaluation of Technical Proposals: CSC while evaluating the Technical Proposals shall have no access to the Financial Proposals until the technical evaluation is concluded and the competent authority accepts the recommendation.
- 15.4 The CSC shall evaluate the Technical Proposals on the basis of their responsiveness to the Terms of Reference and by applying the evaluation criteria, sub-criteria specified in the Data sheet. In the first stage of evaluation, a Proposal shall be rejected if it is found deficient as per the requirement indicated in the Data sheet for responsiveness of the proposal. Only responsive proposals shall be further taken up for evaluation. Evaluation of the technical proposal will start first and at this stage the financial bid (proposal) will remain unopened. The qualification of the consultant and the evaluation criteria for the technical proposal shall be as defined in the Data sheet.
- 15.5 Public opening & evaluation of the Financial Proposals: Financial proposals of only those firms who are technically qualified shall be opened publicly on the date & time specified the Data sheet, in the presence of the Consultants' representatives who choose to attend. The name of the Consultants, their technical score (if required) and their financial proposal shall be read aloud.
- 15.6 The CSC will correct any computational errors. When correcting computational errors, in case of discrepancy between a partial amount and the total amount, or between word and figures, the former will prevail. In addition to the above corrections the items described in the Technical Proposal but not priced, shall be assumed to be included in the prices of other activities or items. In case an activity or line item is quantified in the Financial Proposal differently from the Technical Proposal, (i) if the Time-Based form of contract has been included in the RFP, the Evaluation Committee shall correct the quantification indicated in the Financial Proposal so as to make it consistent with that indicated in the Technical Proposal, apply the relevant unit price included in the Financial Proposal to the corrected quantity and correct the total Proposal cost. Only if the quantity indicated in the Technical Proposal are on the lower side of the quantities proposed in RFP (as per TOR). (ii) if the Lump-Sum form of contract has been included in the RFP, no corrections are applied to the Financial Proposal in this respect. Normally, the date will be the date of opening of the tender unless specified otherwise in the Data sheet.

- 15.7 After opening of financial proposals, appropriate selection method shall be applied to determine the consultant who will be declared winner and be eligible for award of the contract. The methods of selections are described in the Data Sheet [QCBS]. This selected consultant will then be invited for negotiations, if considered necessary.

16. Negotiations

- 16.1 Negotiations will be held at the date, time and address intimated to the qualified and selected bidder. The invited Consultant will, as a pre-requisite for attendance at the negotiations, confirm availability of all Professional staff. Representatives conducting negotiations on behalf of the Consultant must have written authority to negotiate and conclude a Contract.

- 16.2 Technical negotiations: Negotiations will include a discussion of the Technical Proposal, the proposed technical approach and methodology, work plan, and organization and staffing, and any suggestions made by the Consultant to improve the Terms of Reference. The Employer and the Consultants will finalize the Terms of Reference, staffing schedule, work schedule, logistics, and reporting. These documents will then be incorporated in the Contract as “Description of Assignment/job”. Special attention will be paid to clearly defining the inputs and facilities required from the Employer to ensure satisfactory implementation of the Assignment/job. The Employer shall prepare minutes of negotiations which will be signed by the Employer and the Consultant.

- 16.3 Financial negotiations: After the technical negotiations are over, financial negotiations should be carried out in order to reflect any change in financials due to change in scope of work or due to clarification on any aspect of the technical proposal during the technical negotiations. Under no circumstance, the financial negotiation shall result in to increase in the price originally quoted by the consultant. Unless there are exceptional reasons, the financial negotiations will involve neither the remuneration rates for staff nor other proposed unit rates.

- 16.4 Availability of Professional staff/experts: Having selected the Consultant on the basis of, among other things, an evaluation of proposed Professional staff, the Employer expects to negotiate a Contract on the basis of the Professional staff named in the Proposal. Before contract negotiations, the Employer will require assurances that the Professional staff will be actually available. The Employer will not consider substitutions during contract negotiations unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such substitution unavoidable or for reasons such as death or medical incapacity or if the professional staff has left the organisation. If this is not the case and if it is established that Professional staff were offered in the proposal without confirming their availability, the Consultant may be disqualified. If any Expert Personnel get less than 70% marks, then he/she need to be replaced at the time of negotiation and if during interaction session at the time of negotiation, it is found that the Expert Personnel's aptitude and approach is not upto the satisfaction of MDDA, Consultant shall provide substitution with equal or better qualification and experience.
